The University of Florida College of Dentistry is seeking applications for two full-time clinical track faculty positions in the Department of Restorative Dental Sciences, Division of Operative Dentistry at the Assistant/Associate Professor rank. UFCD is recognized as one of the leading dental schools in the United States whose mission is to achieve excellence in the art and science of dentistry through teaching, research, and service.

Responsibilities include didactic, preclinical and clinical instruction in operative dentistry, participation in intramural private practice, excellence in academic pursuits and service, and some limited participation in the development of departmental research and/or other scholarly activities. Applicant should be comfortable in providing clinical coverage in all aspects of general dentistry. Minimum requirements include a DDS, DMD, or equivalent foreign dental degree. Post-graduate training, teaching experience, and/or private practice experience is desirable. Salary and rank are commensurate with credentials and experience.

The University of Florida is an Equal Opportunity Institution dedicated to building a culturally diverse and inclusive faculty and staff. The selection process will be conducted in accord with the provisions of Florida’s “Government in the Sunshine” and Public Records Laws. Search committee meetings and interviews will be open to the public, and all applications, resumes, and other documents related to the search will be available for public inspection.

Initial review of applications will begin on August 7, 2015 and will continue until an applicant pool is identified. To apply, please go to http://jobs.ufl.edu/ and search for job number 492503. Applicants should attach a curriculum vitae, a cover letter describing their interest containing a statement of academic objectives, and a contact list of three references with their application for consideration.

For more information about the University of Florida College of Dentistry, visit: www.dental.ufl.edu.