Department of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery
Clinical Assistant/Associate Professor
Position #00001250

The University of Florida-College of Dentistry is seeking applications for a clinical track faculty position in the Department of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery (OMFS) at the Assistant/Associate Professor rank. The University of Florida College of Dentistry (UFCD) is one of the leading dental schools in the United States devoted to improving and promoting oral health throughout Florida, the nation and worldwide through excellence in teaching, research, patient care and service.

The faculty member will be responsible for teaching at the pre-doctoral (DMD) and advanced education (resident) levels, participating in Faculty Practice, service and scholarly activity. This position will also serve as the Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery pre-doctoral (DMD) Program Director. The position requires a DDS, DMD or equivalent degree, completion of OMFS residency from CODA accredited program and applicants must be board certified or board eligible in Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery. The ideal candidate would have experience in teaching, service and scholarly activity related to OMFS in an academic setting. Candidates should have clinical expertise in the full scope of OMFS; experience in oral pathology is desired. Salary commensurate with credentials and experience.

The University of Florida, a member of the AAU, is the largest and most comprehensive public university in the state of Florida, with large undergraduate, graduate, and postgraduate educational programs. The UF Health Science Center and its six colleges (Dentistry, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Public Health and Health Professions, Veterinary Medicine) are co-located on the Gainesville campus, with additional teaching, research, and patient care sites across Florida, and internationally.
