Retirement Options

State University System Optional Retirement Program (SUSORP)

A defined contribution plan where participants decide how to allocate the money in their account among available investment funds.

- The benefit depends on the amount of money contributed and its growth over time.
- Employer: 5.14% of biweekly earnings (Note: Employers also pay Admin fee/UAL to State of Florida. Therefore, the employer rate you see on your paychecks will be higher than the amount deposited into your account.)
- Mandatory Employee: 3.00% of biweekly earnings.
- Voluntary Employee: Up to 5.14% of biweekly earnings.

Voluntary retirement savings plans

UF also provides voluntary savings opportunities through tax-deferred and Roth 403(b) plans. Additionally, employees are eligible to participate in the State of Florida’s Deferred Compensation Program (457).
