Department of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery
Clinical Assistant/Associate Professor
Position #00020852

The University of Florida-College of Dentistry is seeking applications for a clinical track faculty position in the Department of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery (OMFS) at the Assistant/Associate Professor rank. The University of Florida College of Dentistry (UFCD) is one of the leading dental schools in the United States devoted to improving and promoting oral health throughout Florida, the nation and worldwide through excellence in teaching, research, patient care and service.

The faculty member will be primarily responsible for teaching at the pre-doctoral (DMD) as well as advanced education (resident) levels, participating in Faculty Practice, service and scholarly activity. This position will also serve as the Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery pre-doctoral (DMD) Program Director. The position requires a DDS, DMD, completion of OMFS residency from CODA accredited program and applicants must be board certified or board eligible in Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery. The ideal candidate would have experience in teaching, service and scholarly activity related to OMFS in an academic setting. Candidates should have clinical expertise in the full scope of OMFS. Salary commensurate with credentials and experience.

The University of Florida, a member of the AAU, is the largest and most comprehensive public university in the state of Florida, with large undergraduate, graduate, and postgraduate educational programs. The UF Health Science Center and its six colleges (Dentistry, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Public Health and Health Professions, Veterinary Medicine) are co-located on the Gainesville campus, with additional teaching, research, and patient care sites across Florida, and internationally.

The University of Florida is an Equal Opportunity Institution dedicated to building a culturally diverse and inclusive faculty and staff. The selection process will be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Florida's "Government in the Sunshine" and Public Records Laws. Search committee meetings and interviews will be open to the public, and all applications, resumes, and other documents related to the search will be available for public inspection.

Initial review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until an application pool is identified and the position is filled. To apply, please go to <https://jobs.ufl.edu> and search for requisition 519878. Applicants should attach curriculum vitae including a teaching and/or research statement, along with a cover letter describing their interest in the position, and a list of three references with their application for consideration.
