UF AND THE COLLEGE OF DENTISTRY

The University of Florida, a member of the AAU, is the largest and most comprehensive public university in Florida. The UF Academic Health Center and its six colleges are co-located on the Gainesville campus, with additional sites across Florida and internationally.

The UF College of Dentistry was established in 1972 and is a leader in oral health education, clinical care, research and service. With 12 degree and certificate programs, it is one of only a handful of U.S. dental schools with residency training in the majority of clinical dental specialties recognized by the American Dental Association. The college boasts a robust research enterprise that currently ranks No. 3 among all U.S. public institutions in the Blue Ridge Institute for Medical Research rankings.

Through the UF Statewide Network for Community Oral Health, the college provides oral health care for patients from all 67 counties in Florida each year, including its five college-owned dental centers and 10+ community partners.

The University of Florida is an Equal Opportunity Institution. Applicants should attach a curriculum vitae, a cover letter describing their interest in the position, and a list of three references for consideration.
